

Ellinwood's Marching Mothers Get $283 in Polio Fund Campaign

By MERLA WILSON
FR 5-7270

Ellinwood mothers came through very well on the Mothers' March for polio funds. Our area captain, Mrs. Carl Johnson, reported that they collected $283.75, which exceeds last year's contribution by $20.

She extended her thanks to all her workers and to all those who helped make this drive a success by their contributions.

Stork showers were the main topic of conversation for the past week and a half in this community as several honored guests were presented with many charming and useful gifts to be of service in the very near future.

Joan Nelson was hostess at a shower for Lois Bloom on Thursday evening, Jan. 31. The Nelson residence at 5108 Pacific Coast Hwy. was kept humming during the early hours by the guests, Loradelle DeArmitt, Marge Hocker, Helen Driesler, Jeannine Ponce, Virginia Raski, Dottie Hurst, and Martha Bill.

The following Tuesday, Nelle LaMotte was honored at the home of Dottie Hill, 5032 Newton St.

Participation in the games and enjoying the refreshments of the evening were Buff Meek, Dolly Seavers, Arlene Barg, La Verne Scott, Marjorie Zwart, Ruth Chedotte, Mrs. Hill, and Ruth Larsen, all of Ellinwood. Dee Simmons, Hermosa Beach; Holly Holmes, Hawthorne; Nadine Becking, and Irene Berquist of Manhattan Beach were the out-of-town guests present.

Bobbie Dooling and Mary Ann Freeland were co-hostesses last Friday, when the Dooling home at 5413 Riviera Way was made ready for a shower to honor Norma Smith.

The hours were brightened with games and refreshments and the following group arrived to enjoy the fun: Marge Charles, Carolyn Cameron, Shirley Hanson, Grace Greenwood, Pat Fannon, Mrs. C. Robinson, Mrs. E. Adams, Helen Hemstead, Louise Duquesne, and Marilyn Kimber.

Mrs. C. L. Hurst, of Denver, Colo., has been visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Hurst, 5120 Pacific Coast Hwy.

Mrs. Hurst is a ceramicist and spent many days visiting techniques to take back with her to her home.

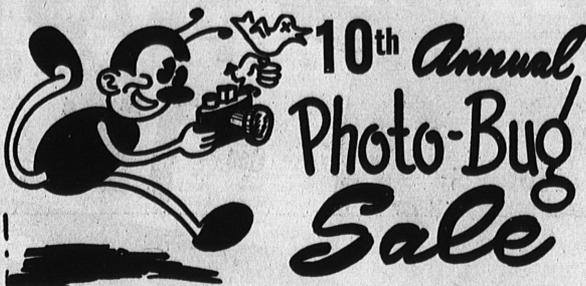

New babies have arrived to brighten up two homes in Ellinwood. Mr. and Mrs. William K. Arnold and their twins, Jerry and Cheri, were happy to welcome a baby boy, Randall Lee, on Jan. 20. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William Arnold of Lomita and the maternal grandfather is T. LeRoy Kulp of Torrance. At the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Marvin Anderson, 4528 Green Meadows Ave., sons Craig and Paul were happy to learn that they now have a darling baby sister, Margaret Elaine, born on Jan. 29. Mr. A. G. Anderson of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vachon of West Los Angeles are the joyous grandparents.
